Lela Migirov was born in 1965 and lives between Paris, France and Israel. She learned painting mainly in the Werzberger College of Arts and Crafts and Paris College of Art. Lela is a member of L'Académie Européenne des Arts (France). She has had 22 solo exhibitions in Paris, Prague and Israel, and 43 group participations in Italy, Spain, France, China, the USA, and Russia. Her artworks are presented permanently at Concept Store Gallery (Paris), in the European Art Museum, Museum of Art of St Petersburg 20-21 centuries, Franz Kafka Society (Prague) and in private collections worldwide. She was awarded with several prestigious international awards for her artistic merits.

"In a chaotic and hectic society where everything is now too fast and extremely immediate, people lost the peace, balance, link to harmony and finding solitude often touches madness. Some of them have the nature of soaring dust and are unable to stand any chains. They soon begin to shake their fetters with insane force and to throw the walls, the chains and themselves around the world. And then art comes as a long conversation transcending eras, countries and languages, and creates beauty from the ashes and rain. My artwork is a result of imagination, contemplation and thoughts on an infinite, fascinating journey into the world of dreams, suggestions, emotions, conversations, magical strengths, mystery and expressive power.
